McDaniel Family

Much more than groups of individuals, we share goals and aspirations. We believe that the family is the place where every child and adult should feel that he or she is special and be encouraged to pursue his or her own dreams; a place where everyone's individuality is permitted to flourish.

SPECIAL EDITION · THE KENYA INITIATIVE

Join us in sharing the love of Jesus through practical ways that impact individuals, families, communities, and a nation.

Adventures in Missions' Kenya Initiative focuses on reaching the Internally Displaced People (IDP) in Africa. These precious people have been refugees in their own country following the 2007 presidential election and subsequent unrest.

Adventures has a team of missionaries stationed in Kenya, three of whom first fell in love with the Kenyan people during their 2010 Adventures Passport trip. Their vision is to see Kenya's displaced people become stable, partnering, self-sustaining communities whose members are empowered to enact positive change, equipped to create industry, and engage in Christ-centered relationships.

So what can you do to help bring about this transformation?

EMPLOYMENT

We are keenly aware of the dangers of making the Kenyans dependent upon Western handouts. This is not our intention. Instead, Adventures works to facilitate self-sustaining employment that also meets the needs of the refugee community such as:

A Cooperative Poultry Farm: both food and jobs are scarce to the people of Camp Vision. A group of 10 farmers working together can raise chickens or turkeys and cultivate long-term resources of protein and purpose. Your investment of $2,500 will launch this community project.

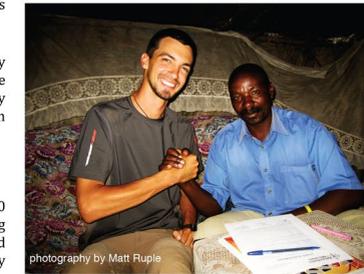

A Sewing Business: Kenyan women are culturally gifted craftspeople and the women of Camp Vision are eager to create products to sell. Your investment of only $700 combined with their entrepreneurial skills can launch a viable self-sustaining business.

Stories of Successful Microloans:

Lawrence, a resident of Camp Vision, was loaned $700 to launch a tailoring business. He purchased a sewing machine and textiles and now makes beautiful needed clothing. Lawrence is now able to support his family with his consistent income.

Jeremiah received a $300 Adventures microloan to start his now thriving barber business. Just $300 transformed the financial destiny of Jeremiah and his family.

Veronikha needed only a $15 microloan to open a small camp grocery store. She soon earned enough to repay the loan, feed her children and send them to school; and start saving money for her family's future. A $15 investment changed Veronikha's family for good.

COMMUNITY CENTER

Right now, the residents of Camp Vision have no common meeting place. This is an important cultural need and will provide a place to host church services. By American standards, it's very economical to build a camp community center as the Kenyans will gladly volunteer their labor. The estimated cost of the land and supplies would be at least $30,000.

The World Race is a mission trip to 11 countries in 11 months. Not to be confused with a reality TV show, the World Race is actually real.

eleven-n-eleven

And it's better.

The World Race (a program of Adventures in Missions) is an invitation to an adventurous life. It's for people who are dissatisfied with the status quo and looking for an opportunity to see God move in powerful ways.

The first trip began in 2006 with a group of twenty-two people who set out on the journey of a lifetime. Making their way through the world on faith, they knocked on doors, slept on streets, and depended on God.

Since that first trip, the Race has only grown and expanded. In 2011, we sent out our 1000th Racer and expect to send thousands more in the future.

Each group of Racers — called "squads" — has a unique route (subject to change) that spans across the globe. Racers join intentional communities and partner with preexisting ministries and missionaries around the world.

So why should you go?

Because you need to be taken out of your comfort zone and sent on a journey that changes you. You need to be exposed to the deep needs of the world and to be transformed in the process.

The World Race will do all that and more.

Who's Who and What's That?

A Glossary of World Race Terms

Racer : a participant of the World Race.

Squad : a group of 40-60 Racers split up into teams of six-seven Racers.

Route : an itinerary of a given Race. Each squad's route is unique and subject to change.

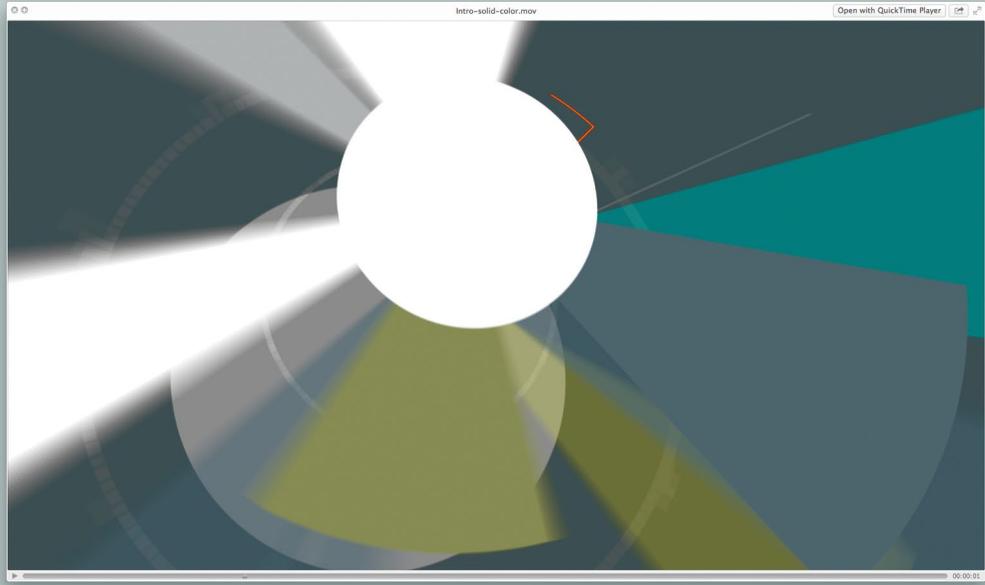

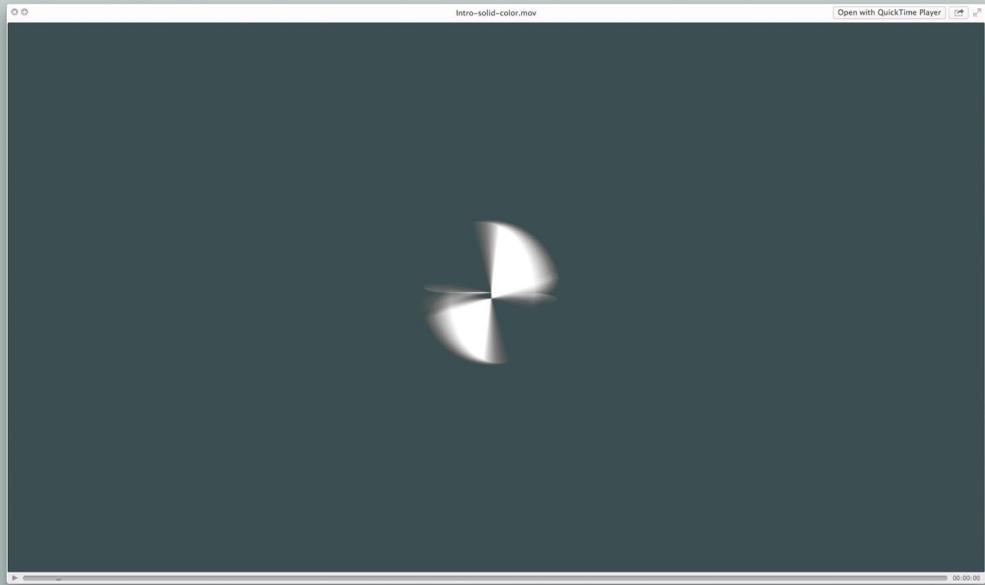

Squad Leader : During the first four months of the Race, two-three alumni lead the squad. From the fifth to the final month, Racers identified by the alumni squad leaders assume leadership. Squad leaders oversee the spiritual health and progress of the whole squad.

Team Leader : a peer Racer selected during training camp. Responsible for serving the team, the leader oversees the spiritual health of teammates and acts as a liaison for them between the squad leaders, logistics team, and ministry partners.

If a squad is a church, then your team is a small group. Through these groups, Racers will disciple each other and work together to serve ministry partners. They will become family.

Like any family, you will sharpen one another but also have a lot of fun with each other, too. You will learn how to deal with conflict and bring healing to each other. And you will grow as a result.

Constantly being around your team will give you a taste of real commitment and covenant. Every day, you'll have opportunities to put your words into action, love teammates through difficult times, and call out others' strengths.

Giving Thanks Amid the Rubble

The coastlines of New York and New Jersey are in shambles after Hurricane Sandy. This Thanksgiving is very different for the families whose homes were destroyed, and they're having to dig a little deeper to find things to be thankful for.

But God brings life out of situations of death, and this tragedy is no exception. This week we heard a beautiful story of restoration from one of our Adventures Disaster Relief participants.

What kind of passporter will you be?

Question # 1	Question # 2	Question # 3	Question # 4
My ability to speak and communicate is most important. Guess you could say I have a big mouth.	I see big picture, have strong sense of direction and am willing to trust my gut.	One on one conversations are most important to me. I love to spend time here!	Let me dive in and figure it out! I work and learn best by trying.
My ability to evaluate and solve is most important. My thoughts are full of insight and normally the right answer.	I am strong, steadfast and build on proven concepts. I enjoy the details and having all the information.	I am a problem solving genius! I can help get things unstuck and moving!	I am the steady voice of reason! I take it all in. I help the group see where, when, and how.

It's more than an Adventure

God is stirring something in you. You're ready for an adventure that will blow you away and make you feel alive again. The Passport is more than an adventure! It's Adventures in Missions's program for college-age (18-22 years old) individuals. Passporters that could be YOU! spend 1-9 months securing their identity in Christ while getting equipped and growing.
